1 man • 3 chords • 190 bpm... SEDLMEIR

Punkrock gets rasped, 70's Hard Rock gets reduced to the substance: guitar and beat.

The beatbox knocks trashy Rock' n' Roll beats.

The lyrics, in german and english (sometimes in "gerglisch" as well...), are sometimes performed with a winking charme, sometimes with cranky anger.

The microphone stand is shaking...

SEDLMEIR pushes too hard. They call him the HARD ROCK ROBOT.

His guitar spits fire. Some people even saw him spitting blood.

Just like then, with the FIREMEN2 and the incredible STEREOHOOLS...

And all of that on 1 square meter, baby!
