Werle & Stankowski

Label: Haute Areal

LC13262

Distribution Germany, Austria, Switzerland: Cargo Records Germany GmbH

Publisher: Gorgeous Fork Music Publishing

Biography:

On the one hand oldschool singer/songwriter-folk with acoustic guitar on the other hand electro-sample-overkill with MPC and analogue synthesizers. That could mean trouble. Could... But indeed Werle & Stankowski form a perfect symbiosis. Sounds a bit like Bob Dylan with Air after a short stay in Kingston and a phonecall from Aphex Twin.

Stankowski's lyrics are straight, touching and sometimes pathetic without hiding behind ironic facade and Werle's subtle, stomping electroarrangements are an ideal breeding ground for sonorous vocals and warm guitar sounds.

These two twentysomethings will make you go crazy, dance and cry for more.

Werle & Stankowski first joined together for recording the soundtrack to a shortfilm in 2003. After this inspiring project, they decided to start as a duo.

In 2004 they released their debut-album „Your Show“ via Haute Areal in Germany, Austria and Switzerland. Werle & Stankowski started touring and played uncountable gigs and festivals in Germany (melt, juicy beats, Intro Intim etc.) Austria and Switzerland, but also in Canada (Canadian Music Week), Netherlands (Eurosonic), England (Goethe Institut) and Italy. The West German Broadcasting Network (WDR) asked them to play at the literature festival lit.Cologne and their songs can be found on many compilations. The second album „Listen to Werle & Stankowski“ was licensed to the majorlabel EMI/virgin and was released in march 2007. Afterwards the previously unreleased Werle & Stankowski – song „Cologne“ was part of the soundtrack to the award-winning newcomer movie „Jagdhunde“.
